

THE FUTURE OF CALIFORNIA'S COURT SYSTEM

REQUEST FOR INPUT BY DECEMBER 5, 2014

Sent on behalf of Justice Carol A. Corrigan, Chair, and Justice William R. McGuiness, Vice-Chair, of the Commission on the Future of California's Court System

Chief Justice of the California Supreme Court Tani Cantil-Sakauye recently created the Commission on the Future of California's Court System to help meet current fiscal challenges and ensure that our justice system is as effective, efficient, and responsive as possible. We need your wisdom to help in this effort.

Please take a moment to give us your ideas by completing the survey available at the link below. Your assistance will ensure that the Commission is focused on today's most pressing priorities. Your experience will inform recommendations to help the branch meet the challenges and opportunities of the times. Your creative thinking is critical to our work.

Survey responses will be compiled and provided to the Commission for review. To complete the survey, simply go to <https://www.snapsurveys.com/wh/s.asp?k=141513973254>. The survey will close on Friday, December 5, 2014. Please refer any questions to FuturesCommission@jud.ca.gov.

Thank you for your response.

Very truly yours,

Hon. Carol A. Corrigan, Chair
Associate Justice of the California Supreme Court

Hon. William R. McGuiness, Vice-Chair
Administrative Presiding Justice of the Court of Appeal,
First District Court of Appeal, Division Three
